Exploring Bushnell Park Walking Tour

Completed in 1864, Bushnell Park was the first American park built and paid for by a city's citizens.

It continues to be a place of natural beauty. The tour explores the history of some of the park's major elements, including the Soldier and Sailor's Arch and the Corning Fountain. Part of CT Trails Day.

Starts at the Butler-McCook House at 11 am. Free.

Sun, June 27, 12 – 4 pm

Connecticut Historic Gardens Day

Stroll through the formal 1865 Jacob Weidenmann designed Victorian garden where guide staff will be available to tell of its history and answer questions. Enjoy a glass of lemonade, and the art exhibit in the Main Street History Center. Grounds free, regular admission applies for historic house tour.
